This merger will seek to improve upon the great tradition that the Hudson Valley Polar Bears have developed in New York State and the northeast region of the United States. Paul Lloyd will continue in an advisory and consulting role with the Hudson valley Polar Bears. Since his role in New York State Armature Hockey and volunteer work with USA Hockey has increased along with his other business ventures and home life.

Glen Danischewski V.P. of Operations with Rink Management Services Corporation the management company that runs the Ice Time Sports Complex will become the Executive Director of the Travel Hockey Program. Mr Danischewski said about the merger "This is a very exciting time at Ice Time, to continue to build on the great history of the Hudson Valley Polar Bears and provide travel hockey to the Hudson Valley for a long time."
